

I want digital wireless telephones to be compatible with hearing aids. I wear a behind the ear aid and I have an extremely hard time hearing when using a cell phone.

The Nokia & Verizon Wireless models are the worst. I couldn't understand a thing being said, even when my friends were yelling. Very embarrassing. The Sprint PCS is wonderful, good sound quality & volume.